Battle for Ballots Continues To Wax Warm; Miss Lela Dinklage Still Holds First Place

CONTESTANTS CLOSE TOGETHER FOR FIRST PLACE

Misses Dinklage, Marcos, Waiaholo and Deverill Are Top Notchers

There are no changes in the relative standing of the contestants in today's scoring and several increased their score, but the list shows no material changes. Miss Lela Dinklage continues to lead with Miss Sophie de la Nux a very close second. Miss Martha Voss is uncomfortably close to the leaders and may be a top-notch on the morrow. Miss Ten Sue Kau passes Florence Winter by a small margin to her credit over the latter. Miss Ida McKean of Alea, has almost reached the one hundred and fifty thousand mark; Miss Nellie McLain added a few more votes to her list yesterday and her scoring is being watched with much interest, as she has been spoken of as a possible winner.

District No. 1, is a hummer and it looks today as though that district is a sure winner for the championship honors, but as subscribers count fast in votes, there may be surprises sprung at the last moment and Hawaii, Maui or Kauai, may come to the front with a large vote and carry away first honors, that of selecting the champion for the party.

All contestants are gaining heavily in their respective votes and some of the most astonishing surprises are expected to be sprung in the final days of the contest. Never a day passes but some of the contestants salt away a few votes to use when the last reckoning is held.

Before the close of the contest a great majority of the people will come in of their own accord and cast ballots for their favorite young ladies. Of course there will be many backward ones—there always are in affairs of this kind—and the contestants will probably go after them hammer and tongs and try to get them to see the benefit from a free trip to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition at Seattle, and persuade them that the votes should rightly go to such and such a one. This is the way to do it, and no one will refuse to give a six months' or a year's subscription to help these young ladies secure extra votes, as unlike other contests there is a value given for every dollar received.

But twenty-four days, including Sundays, remain in the Bulletin contest. Not very many when it comes down to figuring the days, is it? This means a little accentuated work for every contestant in the race, especially if the candidates expect to make any kind of a showing on the last day. Just twenty-four days to convert every non-subscriber of the Bulletin into an ardent reader.

Can this be done? Is asked by many. Probably not all, but very nearly all.

Candidates should do all in their power to keep up the record and get as many more votes tomorrow and next day as they have on other days of this week. It can be done. Get your friends from the city and country to subscribe for you. Bring them to the Bulletin office and explain the proposition thoroughly to them. The bustle and flurry occasioned by the contest will do them good to see. Make the last days of this contest banner ones for the number of votes to go into reserve.

SPECIAL NOTICE

SUBSCRIBERS SENDING THEIR SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE BULLETIN MUST ALWAYS MENTION THE NAME OF THE CONTESTANTS THEY WISH TO VOTE FOR, AS ALL BALLOTS ARE FILLED OUT IN FULL BEFORE LEAVING OFFICE. YOU CAN HOLD BACK THE BALLOTS AS LONG AS YOU WISH. Do It Now.

TOMORROW NIGHT

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock the curtains will be drawn for the plays presented by the Punaohu Dramatic Club at Charles R. Bishop hall.

The curtain raiser will be "Miss Civilization," by Richard Harding Davis, which is a very clever little burlesque in one act full of excitement and vim. Which will be something a little out of the usual.

"The Renegades," by Edmund Ross, in three acts, is a play well worth seeing. It is full of comical turns and unexpected interferences that will be sure to take the home. It is a love scene of the sixteenth century and is one of the best ever written.

Standing of Contestants

SUBSCRIBERS SENDING THEIR SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE BULLETIN OFFICE MUST ALWAYS MENTION THE CONTESTANT'S NAME. NO VOTES WILL BE ISSUED UNLESS THE CONTESTANT'S NAME APPEARS ON SAME.

PRESIDENT SMITH IS INTERPRETER

President Smith's usefulness as presiding officer of the Senate came strongly to light yesterday afternoon. He acted as Hawaiian and English interpreter during the short session.

Senator Brown, in addressing the members, spoke in Hawaiian, which puzzled the house members who did not understand the language. After looking around at each puzzled face, President Smith interpreted the remarks into English.

Senate Bill No. 11, introduced yesterday by Senator Baker, relative to dividing the present County of Hawaii into two counties and providing for the government thereof, was taken up for discussion. Baker suggested that a committee called County Committee, consisting of four members should be appointed to look up the bill, this passed and President Smith appointed Senators Baker, Makekau, Brown and Woods as members of the committee.

McCarthy suggested that the Senate Printing Committee should come to be printed, all bills introduced in Congress, relative to amending the Organic Act and all the other bills that the Delegate may have introduced in Congress. These when printed are to be furnished the Senators.

Moore introduced a bill "an act to encourage diversified industries." It passed the first reading and was ordered printed.

Chillingworth introduced a bill to amend section 481 of the Revised Laws, relative to the purposes for which private property may be taken for public use. It passed the first reading and was ordered printed.

"FRAUDS UPON THE PUBLIC"

Is what some physicians have called patent medicines, and it is undeniably true that some are frauds and some are even worse, because they are injurious. On the other hand, there are many patent medicines such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and others, which are of real worth, and are recommended by physicians of recognized standing.
